From the Principal's Desk

Dear Parents and Pupils,

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you all after the summer break. I anticipate with optimism that you all must have rejuvenated yourselves for the academic session, ahead. This year's board results have been to our expectation but, let's not be complacent and put our shoulders to the wheel to attain even better results. Henceforth, your class teachers have been instructed to play the vital role of a second parent. Every student is going to have a personal profile wherein all your credentials shall be available on our official portal. We hope that our esteemed parents would cooperate with the school to promote their ward(s) all-round development.

So, Happy Reading!

From the Manager's Desk

Dear Readers,

I have been associated with the noble task of teaching for the last five decades. During the intervening period, I have noticed that today's contemporary world survives or thrives on certain values or ethics that are imbibed during formative years in a school. Our kids spend almost 14 to 15 years with us and therefore, it's our obligation to train them for a bright career ahead. Active and positive involvement of not only teachers but also the parents is of paramount significance. Myriad activities besides academic betterment go a long way to prepare affluent citizens of tomorrow. Enjoy this supplement, rest in the forthcoming supplement!

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS COMPETING WITH THE BEST

Little scholars attended the first national youth summit of Special Olympics Bharat in Amity University Noida. It was a very enriching experience to be in the presence of children with ID. Their innocence and their passion towards the sport they are pursuing is extremely motivating and has led us to realise that we can learn so much from them too. Now on, we as a team from Uttarakhand shall be taking a piece of this experience with us, everywhere we go and will try our best to promote the cause and aim of Special Olympics. Special thanks to Manjula Ma'am (Mentor) & Babita Punetha Ma'am. Congratulations!!
